

15 Titles: Teen diversity and inclusion booklist

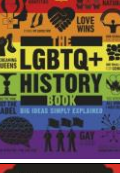

There is so much to celebrate in June.

It is both Gypsy, Roma, Traveller and Showman History Month and LGBT+ History Month, and Empathy Day is on Thursday the 8th of June.

These great new titles reflect our diverse society and open up new worlds. Add this collection to your libraries and book corners as part of your commitment to diversifying your school's book stock and help develop empathy and understanding to create a more inclusive society for our young people.

- The books on this list can be purchased from the School Library Service with the complete list priced at £115
