

Animal Stories

A story about animals or in which the animals are the main characters.

Realistic Stories

A story set in the present and involving events that could actually happen.

Adventure Stories

A series of events that may include danger intended to give a sense of excitement.

Historical Stories

A made up story that takes place in an actual time in history.

Genre

What will you read next?

Spooky Stories

Stories intended to send tingles down your spine.

Information books

Books full of facts usually with illustrations or photographs, a contents page and index.

Magic and Fantasy

A story with characters and events that could not happen in real life.

Funny Books

Books written in a comical and amusing way, for example, funny diaries.

Poetry

Writing that is carefully chosen and arranged for its meaning, sound and rhythm.

Crime and Mystery

A story with a puzzle to solve or a suspenseful event.

Genre

What will you read next?

Animal Stories

A story about animals or in which the animals are the main characters.

Realistic Stories

A story set in the present and involving events that could actually happen.

Adventure Stories

A series of events that may include danger intended to give a sense of excitement.

Historical Stories

A made up story that takes place in an actual time in history.

Spooky Stories

Stories intended to send tingles down your spine.

Information books

Books full of facts usually with illustrations or photographs, a contents page and index.

Magic and Fantasy

A story with characters and events that could not happen in real life.

Crime and Mystery

A story with a puzzle to solve or a suspenseful event.

Funny Books

Books written in a comical and amusing way, for example, funny diaries.

Poetry

Writing that is carefully chosen and arranged for its meaning, sound and rhythm.

