

Lollies book reviews

Our young reviewers Martha, aged 10, and Branwen, aged 5, have read some of the titles and added their own reviews.

Please see below for their 'honest' opinions of some of the titles.

	The Princess with the Blazing Bottom 9781471197284 £6.99 by Beach Branwen's review I liked this book a lot. It was funny. 'Bottom' made me laugh! Mummy didn't like the use of the word 'fart!'
	There's Nothing Faster than a Cheetah 9781529060553 £7.99 by Tim Nicoll Branwen's review I liked this book but not very much. I didn't find it very funny.
	Keisha Jones takes on the World 9781788955980 £6.99 by Natalie Denny Martha's review This is a good book. It's all about a young girl and her new friends, and don't forget her grandpa, standing up for rabbit's rights. They get in to all sorts of mischief along the way and it's very funny. I would recommend this book to seven year olds and above. There's one bit I can't leave out in this review-the funniest part. There is a rabbit's rights runaway show. I would definitely recommend this book.
	The Shop of Impossible Ice Creams 9781444962499 £7.99 by Shane Hegarty Martha's review I found this book hilarious. By far, the chicken was my favourite character, but Mr Fluffy and Limpet were up there too. The chicken made all sorts of havoc-that's why she's my favourite! I liked Mr Fluffy because the way he was dressed was funny, and Limpet because he worried about everything. I rate this book 9/10 and think it would be good for ages six up.
	Trixie Pickle Art Avenger Toxic Takedown 9780241537640 £7.99 by Olaf Falafel Martha's review I thought that, while not every single bit of the book was funny, it was hilarious in the bits that were. It has lots of funny pictures, there are some fascinating artist fact files, and lots of school drama. I enjoyed it because I like art and drama! I would say this book would suit age 6 and above. This is a very good book, I really enjoyed it.
