

KS2 fiction hot reads, June 2026

	Death by Chocolate 9781917171304 £7.99 by Anna Brooke A fun and fast-moving mystery where Coco and his friends investigate a strange chocolate-related crime involving the ghost of Monsieur Framboise who met a sticky end! Can they save the hotel and solve the mystery? Excellent writing, plenty of humour and an enchanting setting. Upper KS2
	The Golden Monkey Mystery 9781805137276 £7.99 by Piu DasGupta When Roma discovers a golden leaf-eating monkey, the rarest monkey in India, she sets out to return the monkey to its home hundreds of miles away. She embarks on a daring jungle adventure with bandits, tigers and magical jewels and a deadly plot involving her father. Fun and vibrant characters with a puzzle aspect to keep readers gripped. Upper KS2
	The Dad Trap 9780702331381 £7.99 by Ian Eagleton A warm and funny story about William and Florence who must put their differences aside to stop their dads becoming a couple. Uplifting with strong messages about friendship and acceptance. Upper KS2
	Hide and Seek 9781529527377 £7.99 by Christopher Edge Adam and his friend Sol stumble upon an abandoned ghost town whilst camping and soon find themselves playing a strange game of hide and seek. But who or what is trying to find them? Fast paced with an eerie atmosphere and lots of twists. Good for less confident readers.
	Snot Jelly Island 9780241732618 £9.99 by Olaf Falafel A silly and laugh-out-loud adventure about a group of five magical creatures (that used to be children) stranded on a disgusting island searching for a missing wand that will get them back home. Laugh-out-loud tale with brilliant artwork and great for fans of Bunny vs Monkey. Younger graphic.
	Boy vs Reality 9780702333118 £7.99 by James Fox BB: Dark Red This story follows Ethan, the youngest member of online family vlogging sensations 'The Laceys', as he tries to deal with challenges in his life. Sensitive writing that flows well with subtle humour. Would be a good class read.
	The Night I Borrowed Time 9780241742624 £8.99 by Iqbal Hussain BB: Dark Red An imaginative story about Zubair who discovers he can change time - but soon realises this comes with difficult choices. Funny and heartbreaking yet uplifting, fast paced and a very likeable main character. Upper KS2

	The Galaxy World Cup 9781917171366 £7.99 by Alan Joyce A fun space adventure about football-loving Nick who gets the chance to play in a tournament with aliens from different planets. Easy reading, humour and solid writing. Great for reluctant readers.
	Nora Nightsky 9780702341533 £6.99 by Rebecca Lewis-Oakes AR: 4.0 LY Nora is a star and is supposed to grant wishes for humans but she is a bit of a rebel. Olivia, a human, asks for a pet and Nora sneaks down to Earth with Leap, her best friend. Will she grant Olivia's wish or will she be trapped on Earth forever? A fun, easy-read chapter book.
	The Moonlighters 9780241493557 £8.99 by Lee Newbery After getting lost in London, Theo is taken in by a group who seek out mysterious and magical objects and use this power for themselves. Action packed and a lot of fun! Upper KS2
	The Feathered Book 9781911427476 £8.99 by Charlie Nutbrown When Monty the fox decides to be a detective his first case is to solve the mystery of The Feathered Book, a book that has vanished. A wonderful debut with excellent writing, well plotted and enjoyable.
	Champions of the Galaxy 9781398523159 £7.99 by Tola Okogwu BB: Dark Red When a powerful group of aliens threaten Earth, a mysterious species called the Onni offers humanity hope by training children to defend the planet. An epic sci-fi adventure with strong themes of teamwork and love for family.