

KS1 fiction hot reads, June 2026

	When I Grow Up I'd Like to Be 9780008627744 £7.99 by Rob Biddulph A colourful and imaginative story where children think about all the exciting jobs they could do in the future. Fun illustrations and great to read aloud.
	Milo and the Mountain 9781788496698 £8.99 by Jamie Carroll Follow Milo as he tries to climb a huge mountain with help from his friends. Warm storytelling with a good message about asking for help when facing a challenge.
	Ten on the Bus 9781839137877 £7.99 by Clare Fennell A fun and lively counting story about ten busy animals travelling on a bus. As the journey continues numbers change and children can join in with counting and spotting what happens next.
	The Forever Bear 9781408897850 £7.99 by Lu Fraser Harry dreams of owning the perfect bear and is very clear about the bear he wants. Will he find it with the help of the shop owner? A magical tale with beautiful illustrations. Great to share.
	Tyrannosaurus Veg: The Carrot-crunching Dinosaur 9780571372577 £7.99 by Smriti Halls A funny and unusual story about Reg, the T Rex, who prefers eating vegetables instead of meat. Join him and his friends on a riotous romp through the jungle. Bright and colourful with a heart-warming message about being different.
	Where's Wally? The Mighty Magical Mix-Up 9781529531138 £7.99 by Martin Handford Follow Wally on an adventure to find Wizard Whitebeard's magic staff which has gone missing. Familiar, fun format with great appeal.

	The Dangerous Pet Lover's Guide to Sea Monsters 9781526667182 £7.99 by Lindsay Hirst A fun and imaginative guide to looking after unusual sea monster pets. Each creature has its own funny personality and habits, making this a playful and engaging read.
	Ninja Bunnies vs the Big Bad Fox 9781408375419 £6.99 by Jake Hopkins Two bunnies find themselves recruited into the Ninja Bunnies who must work together to outwit the Big Bad Fox. Lively characters and perfect for emerging readers ready to move on from graphic novels.
	Ant Party 9781529532005 £7.99 by Ross Montgomery AR: 2.9 LY This lively story follows a team of busy ants preparing for a big party. Fabulous bold illustrations with lots of information about different ants.
	Llama Library 9781915395306 £7.99 by Holly Ryan In this library you don't borrow books - you borrow llamas!! A wonderful picture book with rhyming text that will make you laugh, full of colour and action.
	It's Behind You! 9781839132971 £7.99 by Jeanne Willis A playful and funny story about Nan and Gramps who don't notice what is happening right behind them. Colourful and bold illustrations.
	The Footballing Fairy 9781915569783 £7.99 by Elli Woollard An energetic story about Femi, a fairy, who prefers playing football to granting wishes. Bright and engaging story.