

KS1 fiction hot reads, November 2026

	Are You Looking at Me? by Philip Ardagh Have you ever been stared at by a Big Brown Bear? The animal kingdom is filled with curious creatures, a gawping gibbon, a leering lion, and a frowning frog. But who is the stariest of starers? Lively rhyme and bright illustrations.	9781788958158	£8.99
	Scooter Dog by Lo Cole Scooter dogs love to go fast, and Eddie whizzes through the world with the wind blowing in his ears until his scooter breaks, and he must WALK! He finds out about the amazing things you discover when you slow down and look around you. A sweet, simple story.	9781915395344	£7.99
	Letters to a Giant by Patricia Forde What do you do when a giant invites himself to your birthday party? A funny story about an unlikely friendship.	9781526684905 AR 3.4 LY	£7.99
	Enchanted Beach by Esther Freud A world of magic and adventure is waiting all year around for one boy and his dog at the beach. A magnificent celebration of the changing seasons.	9781529533965	£7.99
	Bear's Nap by Emily Gravett Help Bear find out who is keeping him awake in this very funny story with great rhyming text and expressive illustrations.	9781035074464	£8.99
	Martha Maps it Out with Family by Leigh Hodgkinson Discover families great and small through Martha's amazing maps bursting with details and facts. Fabulous illustrations with lots of facts and some gentle humour.	9781382064248	£7.99
	Pyramid Boy by Sotoshi Kitamura When a boy gets lost in a museum, he suddenly finds himself falling back through time landing thousands of years ago in Ancient Egypt. An engaging time-travel story with fascinating facts.	9781529525403	£8.99

	The Tale of the Grizzlygrim by Rachel Morrisroe They say that its teeth have a fearsome bite They say you should stay far away..... But should we believe what they say? A twisty tale about seeing things for what they really are.	9780241635650	£7.99
	The Cave Downwind of the Cafe by Mikey Please Glumfoot saves the day in a brilliantly disgusting story about hungry bellies, bogey broth and human-eating ogres. A good balance of humour and gross fun factor and great for discussion around imagination, bravery and kindness.	9780008639068	£8.99
	Don't do it, Doug by Maudie Powell-Tuck Doug the hamster is always ending up in trouble as he finds it hard to resist temptation. From shaking fizzy pop (uh-oh) to pressing oh-so-tempting red buttons, Doug just cannot help himself. Packed with bold art, belly laughs and brilliant read-aloud energy.	9781801048620	£8.99
	No Hugs Please! by Ed Vere A dog, who loves hugs, works hard to persuade a cat, who hates hugs, to have a hug. Very amusing with bright expressive illustrations.	9780241709832	£7.99
	Rasta Granny's Rainbow by Jessica Wilson A celebration of cooking Jamaican food with Granny. Rich with vocabulary with some mouth watering recipes at the end.	9781035007127	£7.99